NOTES TO 2025 - 2024 FINANCIAL SATEMENTS

1. The unfavorable revenue variance was primarily driven by lower proceeds from raffle events in 2025 compared to the substantial contributions from corporate donors and alumni batches in 2024.
2. Donations to the school decreased significantly in 2025, as they were limited to cash support for the annual Tionko Day Celebration, whereas 2024 funding was allocated toward major infrastructure projects.
3. Similarly, Printing & Token Expenses declined substantially in 2025, with expenditures restricted to recognition plaques for the three Outstanding Alumni Award recipients. In contrast, 2024 expenses included a PHP 259,700.00 balance settlement for the Centennial Coffee Table book printing contract and other costs for printed materials and souvenirs totaling PHP 75,137.00.
4. No professional fees were incurred in 2025, as the organization remained below the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) threshold for external audit certification.
5. Website expenses for 2025 were confined to maintenance, reflecting a decrease from the higher development costs incurred in 2024.
6. The unfavorable variance in Registration and Processing expenses resulted from applying for, and the subsequent granting of, a BIR tax exemption certificate in July 2025, which remains valid for three years.
7. Repair and maintenance costs in 2025 were limited to door lock replacements and minor works, whereas 2024 saw significant expenditures for replacing office roofs, ceilings, and gutters to address water seepage.
8. Depreciation expense in 2025 reflected a full fiscal year, whereas the 2024 figure represented only four months following the property acquisition.
9. Interest income on bank deposits decreased in 2025, primarily due to the overall reduction in revenues and higher disbursements for prior-year expenses.
10. To manage funds more efficiently, the long-idle dollar account with MBTC was closed, resulting in a minimal foreign exchange gain.
11. Furthermore, all accounts with MBTC were closed and a new account was opened with BDO SM City for better accessibility, given its weekend and holiday operating hours.
12. Accrued revenues pertain to cash donations pledged in December 2025 but collected in January 2026.
13. Accrued expenses refer mainly to raffle prizes drawn in December 2025 and paid in January 2026.
